SPRING 2024

Presidents Message

Happy Spring, everyone! Winter seems to always go by in a blip. We are still putting the finishing touches on the Greater Oxford Civic Association (GOCA) annual meeting but make sure to pencil it in for Tuesday, April 9th. The annual meeting is your opportunity to meet board members and fellow neighbors, engage with speakers, get more involved and provide feedback regarding the GOCA programming. Our programming typically includes: the annual meeting, annual yard sale, National Night Out, Oxtoberfest, yard of the month and the holiday entryway contest. We also continue to publish the award-winning Oxford Observer quarterly. Our Facebook page and Website are updated as needed and monitored routinely. The GOCA committee welcomes new neighbors, monitors crime (often none to report) and monitors and works towards improving infrastructure. I hope you will join us at the annual meeting. You don't need to be a GOCA member to attend, but we'll be happy to help you join the GOCA at the annual meeting (for a mere $20/year) if you haven't done so by then. Looking forward to seeing you at the annual meeting!

One last note: I will be stepping down from the role of GOCA Vice President at the annual meeting. It has been my privilege to fill in during the unexpected board changes this past year. I have the utmost confidence in the slate of Officers and Board members that we will vote in at the annual meeting.

Hot Coffee and Doughnuts for Everyone!

Well, we missed having our Oxtoberfest because of inclement weather, so we're hoping to make up for that disappointment. How about sharing some hot coffee, hot chocolate, fresh locally made doughnuts and some light conversation with neighbors?

There will be five dozen to take home, but plenty for everyone to enjoy that morning.

These doughnuts are from the local "Doughnuts Company" on Midlothian Turnpike, and they compete with best out there, whether glazed, cake, jelly or crème!
So, join us and enjoy an easy Saturday morning with neighbors and delicious fresh doughnuts!

RECIPE CORNER Favorite Family Recipes

Vegan Peanut Butter Cookies Family Recipe from Alie, Graham, and Maddy

This recipe is quick, super easy, and can be made with ingredients you probably already have in your kitchen. If you don't use plant milk in your home, regular milk can be substituted but the recipe will no longer be vegan.

Ingredients:

- 1 cup peanut butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 6 tablespoons of plant milk (we like oat milk!)
- 1 cup flour
- 2 teaspoons of vanilla extract (go for pure extract instead of imitation if you can)
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 pinch of salt

Directions:

- 1. Preheat your oven to 350 degrees.
- 2. Mix together the peanut butter and sugar in a bowl until creamy. Add in vanilla and milk while mixing.
- 3. Then, add baking soda, flour, and salt.
- 4. Take the dough and form cookie dough balls. Place onto a greased cookie sheet and press crisscross with a fork.
- 5. Bake for 11 minutes or until the bottom is golden brown.
- 6. Enjoy!

Bonus:

Up the sweetness by adding dark chocolate chips to the dough.

If you would like to share an old favorite recipe for a future newsletter, please send it to Niki Sabbath at nhs46ff@gmail.com

SnoopMaster: Money, Pickle Ball and Oxford Christmas Contest Scandal

Money is coming to the 4th district for street repair and "fortification". Some of this will be just outside of Oxford, but part of a million-dollar grant will be used to improve Cherokee Road and possibly other streets in the area. This grant is separate from the funding at hand for the traffic calming tables; many have been clamoring for their installation. The good news is that Kristen Nye will be having a meeting with residents asking for some suggestions as to where some of this money should be used.

Stony Point Fashion Park is contemplating Pickle Ball courts at the former Dick's Sporting Goods store, giving more of us the opportunity to join the millions now countrywide on this "new" sport. Very popular now, especially for seniors, the sport is like tennis, using a smaller paddle as opposed to racquet and a plastic "wiffle" ball and a much smaller court. "Easy on the joints" is what I've heard from one 89-year-old player. Whether the Dick's facility will have a membership arrangement or a pay by hour option hasn't been determined yet. There also has been some discussion about a possible brewery coming into Stony Point Fashion Park, making this area a true destination for a variety of food and beverage choices.

The Mayoral Race is shaping up with registered or rumored runs by current or former City Council members. Micelle Mosby, Chris Hilbert, Andreas Addison and others such as Garret Sawyer, Maurice Neblett and surprisingly rumored, Ann Holton. It was said that she could then run for a Congressional seat and then the Senate to take her husband Tim Kaine's place; I hate to break it to you, but she'll be over 75 years of age and I doubt seriously she'll be wanting to take on a Senate campaign at that point. If Tim retires, she'll probably be ready to move to another phase of life also. Snoop discounts this as a true rumor.

Micelle Mosby has raised the most money as measured in November of 2023 at $104,913 with Garret Sawyer coming in second at $100, 302. Chris Hilbert had raised $31,464 and Maurice Neblett, $125. No recent data are available to reveal current funding.

Now - the gripping news you've been waiting for: Holiday Decorating Contest Judges are deemed to have "gotten it wrong" by an anonymous text to one of the board members. This was directed to the "Best Traditional" award ... the most difficult as it's the most prominent theme. I was assured that this year, two nights were devoted to copious note taking and repeat visits to locations to get different perspectives on the nominees. Let me say, the GOCA Board is quite pleased to see that folks are taking this enterprise seriously; it's heartening to know that people care about the activities we plan. Now, it's been rumored for years that this was quite a party amongst volunteers on the committee, and it wouldn't surprise me if some sherry was "spilled" in the process of determining these awards this year. In fact, Snoop volunteered for this a few years back. After about a gallon of egg nog, there were quite a few red noses in that vintage Sedan DeVille including one dude named Rudy that seemed to be more preoccupied with roofs and chimneys than front doors. That Fat Caddy Santa Sled overfilled with cheery faced ... or maybe cherry faced, volunteers ventured out to all 603 houses in Oxford ... that's a lot of front doors, friends! Our designated driver's arthritic knuckle wrapped steering wheel pulled around every corner to find the right calming combination of warmth, tranquility, and peaceful nostalgia that a traditionally decorated door brings. Upon deciding on the "right" one, we sat there, calm, and peaceful - relieved to finally have a winner. Rudy was snoring - all was calm, all was bright - in spite of the car shaking with some undulating hips to Brenda Lee's Rockin Around the Christmas Tree blaring from the cassette player. Blissful, we'd accomplished our task.

Community Yard Sale

Declutter your house, put extra cash in your pocket, and pick up some good deals! Here's what you need to know to participate in the Oxford Community Yard Sale, organized annually by the Oxford Civic Association.

When: Saturday, April 27, from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m., rain or shine

Cost: $10 for members / $30 for non-members ($10 plus one-year membership dues). The cost helps cover advertising in the Chesterfield Observer and the Richmond Times-Dispatch as well as printing signs and maps. All proceeds go to community improvement.

Registration: Send payment to Courtney Tolmie, 8342 Charlise Road, Richmond, VA 23235. Include name, address, and phone number.

Deadline: Registration and payment must be received by Monday, April 15, to participate.

Signs will be posted directing customers into our neighborhood and maps will be printed and delivered to each sale location. The maps can be given to customers so they can find their way to each participating site. Call Courtney Tolmie at 434-242-1684 for more information.

Preparation Tips

- Check the attic/basement/shed in addition to the main house.
- Have other family members scour bedrooms and closets for items they no longer want or no longer fit.

- Clean items that need it. Throw clothes into the dryer to remove wrinkles.
- Put items in original boxes with related paperwork, if possible.
- Be realistic about the price. Remember, you want to get rid of what you're selling. What would you pay for it?
- To speed up the pricing process, print labels. You can also make zones: $1 zone, $5 zone, etc. Indicate a zone with a colored sticker.
- Gather boxes, bags, and newspapers to wrap purchases.
- Have an extension cord handy to demonstrate how electronic items work.
- Have small bills and change on hand. Plan to keep money in a secure area – possibly on a money belt.

Yard Sale Day Tips

- Present items in a pleasing and organized way (by size or type) and keep them off the ground if possible.
- Put items that show well near the street to attract more customers.
- Let customers know if you're willing to negotiate on price.
- Slash prices as the yard sale ends.
- Have fun! Enjoy talking with your neighbors and others around the community.

Kristen Nye City of Richmond Councilwoman, 4th District

Greetings, Oxford friends and neighbors!

I hope this message finds you enjoying a productive and balanced start to 2024! We have certainly hit the ground running very quickly at City Council, and I know there are so many great initiatives happening right here in our neighborhood as well.

As always, my office and I remain accessible to answer any questions and/or assist with any of your city services-related needs, but in the meantime, I'm happy to provide a few community-wide updates:

Traffic Light at Cherokee & Huguenot:

I'm thrilled this important safety project is finally complete! So far, I've heard lots of positive feedback for the increased safety it has provided, including the additional pedestrian infrastructure, which is a standard "best practice," but as with any new project, additional feedback is always welcome – if you have any thoughts or questions, you would like us to pass along to DPW, please do let me know!

City Budget Season:

We are in the thick of the City's annual budget process. As you may know, the mayor drafts the budget and submits it to City Council; we then amend the budget as needed and then formally approve it. The mayor will introduce his budget to Council in late March and then we will hold a number of public hearings on it over the ensuing two months. Throughout my time on Councill, I have said that I feel the budget is one of Council's most important responsibilities, so I will be sure to communicate about it with you regularly, so you know how your City dollars are being spent.

Meals Tax Issues:

I know many of you have seen reports about the significant issues in the Finance Department related to the collection of meals taxes. At our February 12th meeting, the Council unanimously passed legislation to codify how certain meals tax payments are applied, which is the first in many steps to create a fair and transparent meals tax collection process. Richmond is a "foodie town" and we need to be doing everything we can to support our incredible restaurants, especially after many of them suffered so greatly during the pandemic. Please rest assured that the Council cares deeply about our restaurants and is committed to ensuring we make the appropriate changes so they can continue to thrive.

Next District Meeting:

My next District Meeting will be on Wednesday, March 20th from 6pm-7:30pm at Westover Hills Elementary School. The agenda is still in development, but please mark your calendars for some important discussions related to our district!

On a personal note, I wanted to share that I was honored earlier this year to be elected unanimously by my colleagues as President of City Council. I wouldn't be here without the support of the 4th District and I'm so thrilled to have even greater opportunities to expand our incredible district.

Thank you all for everything you're doing to make the 4th District such an incredible place to live! I look forward to seeing you all at your annual meeting on April 11th – please don't hesitate to reach out in the meantime if there is anything we can do to assist.

Sincerely,
Kristen

Chesterfield-Board of Supervisors
Midlothian District

With the new year comes new possibilities and renewed hope and energy. I'm so proud of what we accomplished in 2023 as a community, and I look forward to what's to come.

The Midlothian District has been a flurry of activity. A groundbreaking ceremony was held January 19 at the site of the new A.M. Davis Elementary School, which will replace the current facility built in 1964. The project is expected to be completed in August 2025.

We officially opened the doors of the new Midlothian Library on January 31. I'm thrilled for our community to experience all that the new facility has to offer. From improved seating for lounging or working and a new digital media center, to an outdoor learning classroom and reading garden, be sure to check out the new space.

The county will reach a milestone this year, celebrating its 275th anniversary. Officially created on May 25, 1749, Chesterfield was formed from a part of the County of Henrico. A yearlong celebration is being planned to honor our past and focus on our bright future. Activities and special events will be posted soon on chesterfield.gov/cfield275.

Lastly, my board colleagues and I will host a series of budget town hall meetings in March focused on the proposed FY2025 budget. Mark your calendars for the Midlothian District budget town hall meeting, which will take place March 14 at the new Midlothian Library from 6:30-8 p.m.

As always, please email or call with any questions or concerns.

Thefts From Cars by Mike Martin

Petty theft from unlocked cars in Oxford usually occurs in the warm months when school is out. However, in December a car that was parked in a lighted driveway close to the road was illegally entered one night.

Lock your car doors. Include checking your car doors when you perform your evening routine of locking your house doors.

Burglar Proof Your Sliding Glass Doors

Glass sliding doors allow you to view the beauty of the surrounding landscape without obstructing your view like a regular door would. However, they can also be a target for unwanted intruders without any security in place.

Sliding doors are often hidden from view and located around the back of the home, which can seem inviting for some intruders. Another security challenge is that it can be easy to forget to lock your sliding door before leaving, providing the perfect opportunity for a burglar to walk straight in.

Here are the most common ways a burglar can bypass a sliding door:

Lifting the door out of the track

Because sliding glass doors have heavy-duty rollers that glide along tracks and don't have hinges, burglars can attempt to pry and lift the door out of its track when trying to enter.

Smashing the glass door

For a more direct approach, burglars can smash the tempered glass of the sliding door itself by throwing or striking it with a heavy object.

Bypassing the lock

Most sliding doors will typically have a locking device consisting of a simple latch. This presents a security challenge as intruders can easily break or bypass this lock by 'jiggling' the sliding door until the lock breaks.

How to Improve Your Sliding Door Security

But don't let this scare you, as there are many ways you can improve the security of your sliding glass door and make it more secure to deter would-be intruders.

Use tracker blocks

Sliding screen door rollers open and close horizontally on both the upper and lower tracks. Naturally, one of the simplest ways to increase the security of your sliding door rollers is to put an obstacle, such as a tracker block, in the track to prevent movement.

You can make the tracker block by cutting a wooden broom handle down to size to fit the bottom track. This is a quick and easy way, and while it's not secure proof, it definitely adds a level of security and prevention you didn't have before. Also, it's worth noting that this is nice to have for toddlers and the elderly, preventing them from opening the door.

Reinforce the glass

Your sliding glass door is made up of large sheets of glass. For a would-be burglar, this presents a nice, easy break-in (provided you haven't reinforced the glass).

Simply applying security film to the inside of the glass can really improve the strength of the glass sliding door. This film makes it super tough to break through the glass. It can also protect against kids playing ball sports close to the window and prevent broken glass from an errant ball toss/kick.

You can buy rolls of security film for between $10 and $30 per roll, depending on the type, brand, and size. Though not difficult, successfully applying security film to a sliding door is a tedious task and we suggest that this be a two-person job, as it's almost impossible to do on your own. We might suggest you consider looking to outsource this to a pro.

Add a secondary lock

Locking your sliding door might be an obvious solution, but more often than not, the reality is that your sliding glass door won't have a deadbolt. In most cases, it will use a simple latch that is clamped onto the door. To give your locks more power, we suggest installing a steel secondary lock system such as a deadbolt.

To install it, you can either contact a handy person or do this yourself. If you want to roll up your sleeves, here's what you need to do: drill the screws holes into both door jambs and the sliding frame door. Then simply screw the loop lock into place.

Floor mounting

To stop burglars from lifting your sliding glass door out of the track, you have the option of mounting the sliding door to the floor. This can be done by simply installing a heavy-duty floor latch that hooks onto the bottom of the door that you can easily attach/detach using your foot.

Install alarms & sensors

Sometimes the most effective way to stop unwanted intruders is to deter them, and nothing deters burglars more than an alarm blaring in their ears. You can install door sensors that will go off once they detect the sliding door being smashed or someone trying to pry it open. You can also install additional home security cameras for maximum security and to record the intruder.

Close the blinds/curtains

Another simple yet effective way to deter burglars is to close your blinds or curtains before leaving. An open view of your entire living room allows the intruder to easily scope your home and identify any valuables they can steal. With an obstructed view, the burglar won't be able to see your valuables and will think twice before going to the effort of breaking in.

Bon Air History Old Bon Air Post Office

Editor's Note: The following text and photo are from the Facebook page "Old Images of Richmond" and are reprinted with permission from Christopher B. Coleman

Old Bon Air Post Office is located at the intersection of Rockaway and McRae roads. The building is typical of small-town post offices, but a rare survivor.

It is a simple one-story rectangular frame and weatherboarded structure situated on a brick pier foundation and is topped by a gable roof with exposed rafter ends. A small two-bay porch extends across the gable-front building.

An important building for visitors and residents alike was the former Bon Air Post Office. The Bon Air Post Office was the center of social life in Bon Air. The women of the community would sometimes come twice a day to get their mail and catch up on the gossip. The building was constructed in 1916 on Rockaway Road. The train was used to transport mail from the main post office in the city to Bon Air twice a day. Miss Julia Powers was named the first postmistress and held that position for 29 years. She had an unorthodox way of running the office. She decorated the outside with flowers and in the back of the building she even raised chickens, whose eggs she sold to the ladies coming to pick up their mail. "Chicken feed was kept in "the lobby"; and, the children, who stopped in after school to collect the mail or inquire about a lost baseball glove, made a game of finding the eggs that Miss Julia's hens had laid under the porch. The Missionary Society held their regular meetings at the Post Office.

The mail was transported from the railroad station by Dr. C. M. Hazen, who during his retirement found it entertaining to load the mail in a wheelbarrow and push it up the hill. In 1952, the post office was moved to a larger facility in the brick building that used to house Perrow's Store. After its closure, the new St. Michael's Episcopal Church used its offices for their nursery school.

The small building served as the local post office from 1916 to 1952 and is now owned by the Bon Air Community Association, who purchased it in 1975. Despite its size, limited use, simple construction, and porch replacement, it has survived intact and nearly unaltered since its construction.

The post office is now owned by the Bon Air

Community Association and with its consent, permission was given to for the restoration as a volunteer project.

Top Sale - 8524 Trabue Rd. -

One of the earlier built homes has landed as our top sale in Oxford in the last three months. This handsome Cape had a mindfully renovated kitchen and a family room in the basement that is an incredible space for lounging or entertaining.
